

Tara Jackson

Tara Jackson has a brand new album produced by Phil White of Icon Music. Tara's new album contains 10 songs from some of Gospel music's award winning writers, including Chris Binion, Rebecca Peck, Marty Funderburk, Tery Wilkins, and more. "Wonder Working Power," the first single released from the album, has already been embraced by radio across the US.

Tara Jackson's debut album was carefully crafted using Nashville's top studio musicians - Steve Brewster (Faith Hill, Chicago), Blair Masters (Amy Grant, 4HIM), Jason Webb (Russ Lee, Ernie Hase), Mark Hill (Carrie Underwood), John Catchings (Phil Keagy, Trisha Yearwood), John Willis (The Hoppers), and Kelly Back (Gaither Vocal Band) at Square One Studio. This CD contains songs that showcase the passion Tara has for Jesus. With inspirational and uplifting tracks like "God's Got A Word For You," "Ask of Me," "Pray for America," and "Redeemer," she is already receiving acclaim from the Gospel industry. "Tara possesses a wonderful talent with such an exceptional voice," remarked Sharon Hayes Hodges of The Hayes Family.

This is Tara Jackson's first full length album since she began her full-time solo career in 2006. More recently, Tara has become involved with The Bridge Ministry in Nashville. This ministry was founded in 2004 by Candy Christmas to reach out to the homeless and low-income population of Nashville and the greater metro area. At least twice a week, Tara faithfully sings with Candy and other local Gospel artists for the Bridge Ministry. "Every week we encounter new people who have never been told that Jesus loves them and that we love them. Each week I am amazed at how God moves among the forgotten people of our community, and changes lives right in front of our eyes." Tara's love for the Lord and her desire to see people's lives changed by God exceeds even her vocal talent.

Tara aspires to make music that will reach to the heart of every individual, to see people's lives changed by the power of God. She says, "I am committed to sharing Christ, and living my life as a testimony of how greatly God can use His children to share His love."
