TARA JACKSON RELEASES NEW SINGLE TO RADIO
“God’s Got a Word for You” Going for Adds

NASHVILLE, TN (Press Release) – August 25, 2008 - Jackson Management Agency, Inc. (JMA) is excited to announce the highly anticipated release of Tara Jackson’s newest radio single, God’s Got a Word for You, from her self-titled debut release.

Written by celebrated Gospel music writers Chris Binion and Amy Keffer Shellem, God’s Got a Word for You is an upbeat song of hope and encouragement. “When I was seeking songs for the album, Chris called me one evening to ask if I was still looking,” Tara recalls. “Chris played this song for me over the phone, and I immediately knew that this was a song with a powerful message people needed to hear!” Making a special guest appearance as background vocalists for the song are Scharlene and Brittany Galloway (The Galloways) and Chris Unthank (The Sunday Edition).

God’s Got a Word for You is the second radio release for Tara Jackson, following her highly successful debut single, Wonder Working Power, which garnered national airplay in the US, but also internationally in Canada, Ireland, the Netherlands, and the UK.

God’s Got a Word for You can be found on the August 2008 disc from Airplay Radio Promotions.
